Urban Impact Ministries

Urban Impact Ministries was founded in 1989 as a Christian recreational outreach to children in several neighborhood housing projects. As the ministry grew, it focused on children from the Central City neighborhood and then expanded to meet the needs of their parents and other adults through Castle Rock Community Church.

Urban Impact's mission is to "transform the people of Central City New Orleans through spiritual development, Christian community development and strategic partnerships."

Sandy Lee

Discipleship and Intern Director

A PhD who was born in the Bahamas, Sandy combines youth ministry, cross-cultural relationships and counseling in her passion for discipleship. She is known and loved for her craziness but Sandy's real passion is developing genuine followers of Jesus who are able to disciple others.
